Daily Spotlight Video Project Rubric

Task Description: This project will familiarize students with the skills you've learned in this class by working with people in your household to create a 1-minute video that details the exciting moments in your daily life during this uncertain time to lighten up and laugh. It can be homeschooling or weekend activities related and everything must be school appropriate (funny and educational).

Included in your video:

- Intro slide and Exit slide.
- opener for your story, an establishing shot list, ending of story
- Background music

Requirements:

- The video is well-lit, well-shot and well-framed.
- Enough footage is filmed to make the editing process as easy as possible.
- The script and storyboard are engaging, interesting and emotive and followed closely.

,	The storyboard illustrates the video presentation structure with thumbnail sketches of each scene. Notes of proposed transition, special effects, and sound and title tracks include: text, color, placement, graphics, etc. Notes about proposed dialogue/ narration text are included.	The storyboard includes thumbnail sketches of each video scene and includes text for each segment of the presentation, descriptions of background audio for each scene, and notes about proposed shots and dialogue.	The thumbnail sketches on the storyboard are not in logical sequence and do not provide complete descriptions of the video scenes, audio background, or notes about the dialogue.	There is no evidence of a storyboard or script.

The content includes a clear statement of purpose or theme and is creative, compelling and clearly written. A rich variety of supporting information in the video contributes to the understanding of the project's main idea. Events and messages are presented in a logical order. Includes properly cited sources.	Information is presented as a connected theme with accurate, current supporting information that contributes to understanding the project's main idea. Details are logical and persuasive information is effectively used. The content includes a clear point of view with a progression of ideas and supporting information. Includes properly cited sources.	The content does not present a clearly stated theme, is vague, and some of the supporting information does not seem to fit the main idea or appears as a disconnected series of scenes with no unifying main idea. Includes few citations and few facts.	Content lacks a central theme, clear point of view and logical sequence of information. Much of the supporting information is irrelevant to the overall message. The viewer is unsure what the message is because there is little persuasive information and only one or two facts about the topic are articulated. Information is incorrect, out of date, or incomplete. No citations included.
